Troy Area Shrine Club
 PAUL S. KAHIAN, Secretary

The January meeting of the Troy Area Shrine Club was held at the Shrine Center on Monday, January 29th. The meeting was opened by President-elect PP John Garhartt. The invocation was given by PP Byron Moak, followed by the Shrine Pledge to the Flag.

After dinner, PP John Garhartt introduced Lady Andrea and thanked Lady Sue Ann and PP Tom Nicholson for the great dinner.

Illustrious Potentate Gaylord Hawley installed the officers for the 2018 Troy Shrine Club: President PP John Garhartt, Vice President Dave Stanley, Secretary Paul Kahian, and Treasurer John Pagano. He then installed the Clown Unit members: Noble Paul Kleinberger, President, PP Byron Moak, Vice President and PP John Garhartt, Secretary Treasurer.

Noble Paul Kahian presented cash in the amount of $2400. This was a donation to the Shriners from a friend (Joe) who is not a Mason or Shriner, but wanted to help the children in our hospitals and wishes to remain anonymous. Paul will thank him on behalf of the Shriners. Noble Paul Kleinberger spoke of the Clown Institute and the great work being done. The 50/50 raffle was won by PP Jim Vooyo.

Sickness and Distress: PP John and Andrea's daughter has had a re-occurrence of a serious illness. Please remember her in your prayers. PP Bill Reed's wife passed away. In December, Noble Merrel Allen passed away. Lady Dorothy had pneumonia and is recovering. Our thoughts and prayers are with her. On a good note, PP Robert Harris is doing much better and now can stand on his toes.

THE POTENTATE'S MESSAGE

Nobles, Ladies, Families, and Friends

Wow, where does the time go? It's been just over a month since I was installed as your Potentate, and a lot has happened for Oriental Shriners.

The February 10th bus trip to the Saranac Lake Winter Carnival parade was a huge and fun success. Thanks to all who joined in the fun! A very special thanks to Gerry and Harold Goodsell for the customary libations, Tom and Leslie Abraham for the donuts and coffee, and John and Andrea Garhartt for the fabulous sack lunches we all enjoyed. As with anything, one person can't do it all. Many hands chipped in, Chuck and Dawn, Rick and Bev Sauer and Bev's sister. The Hotel Saranac was open after several years and made the day for all of us, we even celebrated Dawn's birthday there. Plans are already in place for next year. The crowd in Saranac really enjoy and cheer on we Shriners! It was great to have the Norco Clowns parading with us again this year! A Fun, Fun, Fun day was had by all.

February 17th found your Potentate and much of the Divan at the meeting of the Norco Shrine Club and Norco Clown unit. We enjoyed a lunch gathering at the Ground Round in Plattsburgh. Club and Clown officers were elected and installed for 2018. PP George Mudd and Noble Steve Hansen worked hard to make this a fun and enjoyable day. Most importantly though, was the fact that I was able to initiate four new Shriners at this meeting. Three of the four will be participating in the full Ceremonial to be held April 7th at the Potentate's Ball gathering, being held at the Embassy Suites in Saratoga Springs. Make your reservation soon. It's gonna be a fun time in Saratoga! I can't be more pleased to know our northern flank is alive and well and look forward to their active participation in 2018 Oriental Shrine events.

Your Circus Chairman and Chief Rabban, Barry Trasacco, has again been working hard on this year's Circus schedule. He has Circus dates scheduled for Amsterdam, Schuylerville (new), Hudson Falls, Lake George, Whitehall, and Plattsburgh. Look for dates and times to come. The Circus is definitely Oriental's major fund raiser and I encourage everyone to make plans to attend one or more of the circuses with your fez to help support the massive effort Barry puts in.

Time certainly does fly by, and the 144th Shrine Imperial Session in Daytona Beach, FL, will be here before we know it. Dates for Imperial are July 15-19th. Make your reservations now! Don't get locked out of the subsidy your Divan has planned for you! Look for details on the sign up page in this newsletter!! First come first served!

Parade season is already here, Lake George St. Patrick's Day Parade will be Sunday, March 18th, line up 12-12:30, parade at 1:00. Line up will be on Westbrook Road facing north (towards the lake). Parade will proceed up Beach Road to Canada Street. Lake George loves Shriners, so let's have a great turnout! Your Pote will remember the banner this time! We need walkers, Hospital Van drivers, go kart drivers (weather permitting) and cheerleaders! Fun, Fun, Fun, come join in!

I look forward to seeing you all at the Potentate Ball, a Club meeting, a parade, a Circus, or other Oriental Shrine event.

Fraternally,
Gaylord Hawley – Potentate

PAUL S. KAHIAN, Secretary

The February 26th meeting of the Troy Shrine Club was called to order by President PP John Garhartt who introduced Lady Andrea. PP Byron Moak gave the invocation. President John then led membership in Shriner Pledge to the Flag.

After dinner the president thanked Lady Sue Ann and PP Tom for a delicious dinner. He then introduced club officers, VP Dave Stanley, Secretary Paul Kahian and Treasurer John Pagano. The raffle was held with several winners.

Under sickness, distress and joy it was noted by Lady Andrea and Lady Sally that Lady Carol Slocum is doing better. She is still in rehab. They also reported that Lady Dorothy Allen is doing a little better.

It was noted that Lady Kathy Pagano is performing on June 3rd in Averill Park. Details to follow. Lady Andrea reported Eastern Star will hold a dinner here on March 16th. President John stated he would be on his way back from combined hospital meeting to be held in Philadelphia.

Before the program for the evening, President John turned the meeting over to III Potentate Gaylord Hawley who introduced Divan members, Past Potentates and Ladies. He reported a "whirlwind" month, with the Lake George Parade and the bus trip to the Saranac Winter Parade. Everyone had a great time. There was also a Cold Sands held with four new Shriners. There will be a Hot Sands Ceremonial at the Potentate's Ball weekend April 6-8 with the Ball held on Saturday, April 7th. He reported that the Basket Raffle will be on June 3rd. March 18 is the Lake George St. Patrick's Day Parade. Line up at 12:30. March 14th-17th NESA meeting in Rutland Vt. The Knife Raffle drawing will be at the Potentate's Ball. NYOSA is on April 20-21st in Buffalo. A bus trip to Springfield Hospital will be on July 28th. The Imperial Session is on July 15-19th.

President John then introduced PP Byron Moak for the program of the evening. Byron reported on four events, including a Scottish Rite 33rd degree this past weekend. On March 25th the Feast of the Pascal Lamb starts at 3 pm at the Brunswick Temple, with dinner at 4 pm. April 14th is the 250th anniversary of the Scottish Rite in America, to be held at the Albany Temple. At the next Troy Shrine Club meeting, PP Byron has once again secured the Lansingburgh High School Jazz Ensemble to perform for us after dinner. PP Byron then gave the program for the evening. Since we just celebrated President's Day, he gave a talk on US Presidents, especially those who were Masons and Shriners. He brought and displayed many historical pieces, including an extensive collection of Presidential campaign buttons and ribbons. His talk was very interesting and all enjoyed. Club President John thanked PP Byron and asked him to give the Benediction.

TROY SHRINE CLUB

President John then introduced III Gaylord Hawley, III. Gaylord thanked all and looks forward to a great year. He introduced the Divan, Past Potentates and ladies. He presented the schedule of events for 2018. Starting with the Lake George Parade on February 3 and the Super Bowl party on February 4th. The Saranac Lake Parade is on February 10th. The Potentate's Ball will be held April 6-8th at the Embassy Suites in Saratoga Springs. He also mentioned upcoming parades that are scheduled later in the year, and the sportsman's raffle. The meeting was closed and the Benediction was given by PP Byron Moak.
